Pilgrims

He was arrested for preaching the gospel. His wife died leaving him with four children to look after, one of whom was blind. Undeterred, he went on preaching the good news of Jesus Christ. In fact, it was whilst John Bunyan was in a prison cell that he wrote his most influential book. First published in 1678, it has never gone out of print and has been translated into over 200 different languages.

Pilgrim's Progress is an allegory of the Christian life, which tells the story of Christian and his pilgrimage to the Celestial City. Sometimes the way is pleasant but more often than not, Christian has to persevere through a series of challenging terrains, from the Hill of Difficulty to the Valley of Humiliation. At one point, he chooses an easier path and finds himself lost before being locked up in Doubting Castle under the careful guard of the Giant of Despair. After taking hold of the key of promise, he reclaims his freedom and returns on the way. He keeps pressing on, though many turn back.

At another juncture, he encounters lions who appear to make any further progress on the way impossible. Fellow travellers, Mistrust and Timorous turn and run in the opposite direction. But a friend encourages him with these words:

“Fear not the lions, for they are chained, and are placed there for the trial of faith and for the discovery of those who have none: keep in the midst of the path and no hurt shall come unto thee”

Christian though trembling with fear, pressed on. He heard the lions roar, but they did him no harm.

The book of James says, “Consider it pure joy, brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know the testing of your faith develops perseverance. Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything” (1:2-3) and again, “Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him” (1:12).

We are pilgrims on a wonderful journey together, following after Jesus and all that he promises. We pray that as we read James on Sunday mornings that we will be strengthened and encouraged by the teaching and wisdom of Jesus, particularly when the road ahead is tough.

Hitch-hiker's Guide to the Apostle Paul

When you read the New Testament, it is clear that, although the apostles and the followers of Jesus gladly shared the good news with those they met, one person stands out in making the gospel known. We call him the Apostle Paul but he was known at first as Saul the Pharisee. While we know something about him from the Book of Acts, there is much more we can only find out by reading his letters.

Over five Sunday nights beginning on September 29 I want to explore the story of Paul and the impact he made. We will try and fill in the gaps in his story and discover what kind of person he really was. This will open up the New Testament in a fresh way and make his letters come alive.

We will meet on the last Sunday of the month at 7pm, so as not to clash with the monthly Lothian Praise Service which is on the first Sunday of the month. Do come along and share the journey.

Hello everyone, I have been asked to introduce myself, so here goes! I am Nancy Thomson. I have been worshipping here since 1991. I was a Primary Teacher, but am now happily retired. I have been involved with Healing Rooms in the past and then Prayer Ministry within our church. I have seen God work in many ways when people come to Him for prayer and I have had amazing answers to prayer for myself and my family because people of faith prayed.

I am excited to be taking over from Carrie Duthie and I thank her for her leadership of Prayer Ministry for many years. She is hoping to continue to be involved in many aspects of our prayer life and I look forward to working alongside her still. I might be leading this ministry, but there's a dedicated team who will work with me to pray for God's leading and set up our 24/7 style prayer stations.

I am excited about all that 24/7 Prayer have done, and are doing in their 25th year. I have attended two of their National Gatherings. Rachel Dhillon National Coordinator 24/7 Prayer Scotland came and helped us set up the prayer space on Good Friday.

I am looking forward to developing the relationship between our church and 24/7 Prayer Scotland.

As I have been contemplating my new role I was aware when speaking to people that they (and I weren't aware of all the ways that we pray at St Andrews Leckie, so I have put together a leaflet, which you can pull out of this magazine, giving details of these. I would love more people to be involved in our prayer life and our vision is to be a round the clock house of prayer, so I am hoping that you will feel encouraged to join us in one of these prayer activities.

I am part of the team who lead the congregation in Prayers of Intercession and Thanksgiving within our church services. We would really appreciate having a larger team of people willing to do this. I always feel that God leads me to the items for these prayers. If you would be willing to write these occasionally or you would like to become involved in any of our prayer activities please contact me nancy@standrewsleckie.co.uk
Thank you

Farewell and thank you from Heather

When I walked through the doors of St Andrews Leckie for the first time in August 1991 I had no idea that God had a plan for me. What I did know was that I had found my church and felt comfortable and welcomed. The following Sunday there was a note in the Order of Service asking for a volunteer to help the Church Secretary Margaret Headford and the following week I met with Jim Wallace, Hector Cameron the Session Clerk and Bob Marshall the Treasurer and so began my journey. Margaret retired shortly afterwards and I took over the admin duties voluntarily. In 1993 Gordon and I were expecting our third child and he decided he wanted to arrive six weeks early resulting in me being in hospital until he was born safely at 37 weeks, and we as a family received wonderful prayer and support during that time. Over those ten years I grew in my faith.

In 2001 the Kirk Session decided that they wanted someone to be the face of the church in the office and accessible to the membership and community and the job of Church Administrator was created and I got the post.

Thirty-three years later and here I am - retirement almost upon me. Last working day will be Thursday 1 August. It has been an honour and a privilege to serve St Andrews Leckie congregation for so long and I can honestly say that I have enjoyed it immensely but I'm looking forward to the next chapter in my life and that of my family.

Thank you and God bless you all.

Heather

As well as taking part in the Beltane Parade this year, our Sunday Club children have been out and about in the Community

The Sunday Club children recently decided we would like to do more things out and about in the community. We started by helping deliver Christian Aid envelopes at sheltered housing complexes around town.

A few weeks later we visited Riverside and had a lovely time with some of our church family there. We are very thankful to the ladies who came along to meet with the children. It was a blessed time where the children were able to chat and spend time with older Christians who have walked with Jesus throughout their lives. We finished with a time of prayer together and a sing-song of My Lighthouse!

Youth Ministry

As we don't run our regular groups over the summer it is a good time to think about what we are doing and why. I've been spending some of the extra time planning and reading, speaking to people and thinking about the year ahead.

Root explains that until the 90's, Parents were keen to slow down their teenager's development towards adult behaviours. Young people had more free time, which was spent outside or with friends. Parents were scared about drugs and alcohol or early sexual experiences and wanted their youth to be in a safe environment; a Christian youth club was popular because it helped to delay these activities. Now instead, for many (better-off) young people, every moment of their lives is filled with scheduled activity, in person or perhaps online. Parents, of course, are very anxious that their children feel emotionally safe and ultimately the goal is that they are happy. They want their child to find their identity, but aware of the minefield of options ahead of them; think that identity is best found through recognition, achievements and through young people finding their 'thing' an activity they are good at. People believe that finding your identity and being validated by others in that, will make you feel happy. According to Root, people might feel that Church or Youth Ministry provides supportive values, 'seeds and tools' to help their youth through hard times, but it can't be their ultimate 'thing' or provide their 'identity' and therefore can't compete because it can't provide the happiness when compared to other activities.

My questions:

- Is this true? Is happiness our ultimate goal in life, for ourselves, our friends or for our children?
- What is youth ministry (or church?) for?
- How do you think your answers reflect or differ from our culture?
- What is the best way for young people to form their identity and how can we all help them and their parents with these challenges?

Family Ministry

Our toddler groups continue each Tuesday during term, 10-11.30am and 1-2.30pm with a good attendance. We would love a few more on the team on Tuesday mornings, so that if people are poorly or need to go away, we still have plenty of help. The main role is to chat to parents/ grandparents and child minders, helping them to feel welcome and to connect with others.

I have some ideas for how the family ministry can be developed, especially in an outreach project to dads and some support for single mums. I would like to hear from any church member that have these particular groups on their hearts and in their prayers.

Our BB groups which are for boys and girls will restart on Thursday 29th August. We have a few spaces in the Company section for young people in P7, S1 and S2. But the younger groups will have a waiting list. Please email sarah@standrewsleckie.co.uk to reserve spaces. Or visit <https://boys-brigade.org.uk/join/> to find out more.

Pastoral Visiting

Maggie Henderson is the overall lead for Pastoral Care and I recently became the lead for Pastoral Visiting. We want to ensure that we are providing a more efficient, holistic Pastoral Care service and to reach those who want/need to be visited by people who have a heart in this area of ministry. It is apparent through chat with people in church that there are gaps in our service provision and we would like to address that issue.

I am trying to collate information re who is currently involved in visiting, as things are a bit disjointed and to that end, I would like to ascertain;

- Names of all current Pastoral Visitors.
- Names of people who would like to become involved in Pastoral Visiting.
- Details of anyone who would like to have a Pastoral Visitor but are not currently being visited.
- Names of those involved in visiting church members past or present, on an "unofficial basis" (as a friend/not under the auspices of St Andrews Leckie).

You can pass details to me either via email ;

mamritchie@hotmail.com,
face to face in church or by completing information sheets which I will bring to church each Sunday morning and leave on the Communion table for completion, at the end of the service.

My plan is to meet with all Pastoral Visitors once I have an updated list so that we can support each other and discuss the way forward together.

Philippians 4: 6-7

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Prayer and Praise

The 2nd Sunday of each month the Evening Service is Prayer and Praise, where we break into small groups to pray.

Prayer Ministry

We have a Prayer Team; people trained in praying with individuals in confidentiality. We trust that our Sovereign God will heal and intervene supernaturally in situations when His people trust His word and pray in the name of Jesus. We give all the glory to God for what he has done and will do.

After the summer we are planning to have some members of the Prayer Team available to pray for anyone who wishes. This would take place at the end of the Service at the front of the sanctuary.

Prayer Triplets

Were you part of a prayer triplet before Covid? Do you still meet to pray? Would you like to be part of a prayer triplet? Contact nancy@standrewsleckie.co.uk so we can build this ministry in our church family.

Communion

ChurchSuite

We are now using ChurchSuite; It's an amazing new database which can help everyone to stay connected and be more informed about what is happening at church. It helps with the registers and forms for children's and youth ministry, to send emails and to organise groups and rotas. It's brilliant because each person can easily update their own information and sign up for events that are coming up like the beach trip! If we have your correct email, you should have received an invitation to log-in to check or change you and your children's details. Otherwise please contact the office and we will send out a fresh invitation.

It is important to highlight we are not storing any more information than what was on our previous database; the new system is just easier for everyone to access their own details if they wish. If you are uncomfortable using or having a login, you can still continue to contact the office to check and/or update your details and be added to a rota.

If you are on a rota, having a login can be really handy - not only can you easily check when you are "on" but you can receive emails reminding you to save getting a surprise on a Sunday morning. More information and a quick video follow the ChurchSuite link on the website or go to <https://leckie.church/cs/>

F.A.Q.

What information is shared?

We only store basic information such as your name and contact details; this is shared with Ministry Leaders to help organise church events. You can also opt to make details visible by other church members so they can contact you, such as your email but this is your choice. No information is shared out with the church except for legal reasons.

Is my data safe?

This is one of the main reasons we have switched over to ChurchSuite. We still store the same (or less) information as we did in the past. Being a cloud based system allows us to keep a better track of who in the church has access to your data and remove the need for paper copies to be left around. Letting a trusted company maintain this system means there are experts to keep on top of the security much better than we could in house (see <https://churchsuite.com/security/> for more info). ChurchSuite is run on UK based servers and is fully GDPR compliant.

What if I am not “online”?

The additional facilities available are just a bonus to make your life easier. You can still update your contact details by contacting the office and they will still be able to add you to a rota or event if you can't do it online.

What if I'm not very good with computers?”

We are not forcing anyone to use this. If you are just comfortable checking your details and receiving emails when you are on door duty, fine. Use it for what you are comfortable with and contact the office for the more complicated things like adding availability for a rota. We are also planning on having some sessions after church to give people an idea of how to do the basics and ask questions.

Where can I find more information?

If you want to dig into some more advanced information, the first place to go exploring is the User guide; if you find something useful be sure to share it with others.

The Flower Calendar for 2024 is now available in the west side of the vestibule.

If you would like to donate flowers, please add your name to the calendar.

Our Community Cafe has enjoyed a great year with regulars and new faces coming along and enjoying the welcome and the delicious food. As we take our break over the summer we wish to thank all our volunteers who set up, make food, serve, chat and cook for us. The feedback we get from people shows that our café really does make a difference to people's lives.

We provide soup, toasties and home baking. Recently we tried having less soup and serving filled rolls instead.

We are REALLY in need of more staff.

There are only three of us who at the moment take the role of kitchen lead.

This is not overly onerous. We desire someone in this role to have a basic food hygiene certificate and a PVG for adults and children. PLEASE consider prayerfully if this is something that you might support us in.

We only have three other people who are our kitchen helpers. The kitchen leaders also take this role. As you can see a lot falls on the shoulders of the three kitchen leaders at the moment. PLEASE consider prayerfully if you might be able to be a kitchen helper.

Other roles in our cafe are; Server and Food Maker. We are always looking for more people to volunteer for these roles too.

We're a very supportive team who enjoy our time together. We'd love to welcome you to our team. Please speak to Maggie Henderson Nancy Thomson or Susan Hotchkiss to find out more.

We would like to invite our volunteers and anyone interested in being a volunteer to the Church Hall for some tea, coffee and homemade cakes on Wednesday August 28th at 3:30pm. It's our way of saying thank you. Please let us know if you intend to come along to help us cater for the correct number. The cafe will restart on Wednesday 4th September. We look forward to welcoming you there. Please consider bringing along someone who would benefit from this outreach into our community.

We had another very successful Christian Aid Week this year in May, raising the excellent total of £9,370 including Gift Aid. In these difficult economic times, this is a very pleasing total.

The House to House Fundraiser resulted in a total of £4,592. One hundred and five volunteers delivered envelopes to over four thousand houses.

A sponsored 7 mile walk for children along the Tweed raised £551.

The Plant Stall raised £661. We were delighted by the quantity and quality of the plants donated and virtually all were sold.

The three Coffee Mornings raised £857 and we were delighted to have helpers from all the churches.

Finally, Sue Isherwood's Triathlon raised a magnificent £2,116.

We would like to thank everyone who took part in helping us reach our total in whatever way – by donating, volunteering, taking part in activities and giving of time.

Filming in the Church Hall

On May 27-28th The Leckie Memorial Church Hall turned into a film studio. Rae Manger, a Camera Operator from Sanctus Media, came along with two members of staff from the Church of Scotland Faith Action Group (Producer and Director) and together they set up two sets in the hall.

Faith Action wanted to record my Hitch-Hiker's Guide in an accessible way for candidates for the ministry and also for others who might be interested. It was rebadged "Unpacking the Bible" and instead of one hour talks given to an audience, I was to divide each talk into short segments and speak as if there was only one person in the room.

Introducing each episode was Fiona Stewart, a freelance actor who directs Footloose Theatre Company. Fiona has worked for both SU and the Scottish Bible Society and regularly does "Thought for the Day" on radio.

Between each teaching segment Fiona and I moved to the second set where we sat down and discussed aspects of the material I was teaching. We worked hard in advance to agree the edited script and managed to record all eight episodes in two days. We both had to remember to change our clothes between each episode to give the impression of time passing! As I knew both Rae and Fiona well, it made the whole process much easier and good fun. Ruth popped in each day to check I was doing ok. Actually she came to check I had combed my hair, pulled my jersey down and was sitting up straight!

The production is due to be finished by August and thereafter it will be uploaded onto the Church of Scotland website and I will give you more details when that happens.

Please pray that this will be a helpful resource to get people into the Bible and so to grow in their faith. Heather made sure that we were well looked after and we are grateful to St Andrew's Leckie for allowing us to use the hall.
